

Sue's daughter Claire bought her a Cheese making kit for Mothers Day. As we were plunged into Lock Down and we love messing about in the kitchen this turned out to be the best gift possible. Our first completed Cheese was the cornerstone of last nights meal and it was really good.

Our only alteration next time we do this recipe will be to use slightly less Salt in the drying stage and just give it a bit more time.